

House Resolution No. 1939

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an extraordinary young Missouri citizen who has attained tremendous personal success through achievement in the Boy Scouts of America program; and

Whereas, Matt Stahl of Troop 206 in Independence, Missouri, will receive the prestigious Eagle Scout Award during a Court of Honor ceremony to be held May 15, 2005, at Saint Mark's United Methodist Church; and

Whereas, Matt Stahl earned the praise and respect of many for the initiative and enthusiasm he displayed in regard to his Eagle Project which involved the installation of an enclosure for an air conditioning unit at Saint Mark's United Methodist Church; and

Whereas, during his eleven years in the Scouting program, Matt Stahl earned an impressive twenty-two merit badges, attained membership in the Tribe of Mic-O-Say, and participated in the Klondike Derby, Camporees, Webelos Camp, Summer Camps, a trip to Colorado, and Day Camp; and

Whereas, Matt Stahl has readily prepared himself for the challenges of the outside world through his important terms of service to his Troop as Assistant Patrol Leader, Patrol Leader, Librarian, and Quartermaster; and

Whereas, Matt Stahl has achieved all of this and more with the love, support, and encouragement he has continually received from his proud parents, Jerri Huggins and Charles Stahl:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Matt Stahl at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing him only the very best as he continues to uphold the Scouting tradition with both honor and decorum; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Eagle Scout Matt Stahl.
